ORDER:

In the reference 1st read above, Sri Mohd Nasir Hussain Madani, has appealed against the rejection orders issued by the Commissioner of Police, Hyderabad vide memo No.SW/Arms/173/205, dated:24.06.2006 for grant of Arms Licence to possess one NPB Revolver/Pistol for self protection with Andhra Pradesh area validity.

2. In the references 3rd read above, the Commissioner of Police, West Zone, Hyderabad has reported that there is no real threat perception to the applicant. The reason given by the applicant for grant of Arms Licence is that he goes in night rounds as an Administrative Officer of Shadan College is highly doubtful and merely because he moves in the night doesn't place him in any disadvantageous position. The main contention of the petitioner is that he has to check the Engineering and Medical Colleges at different places of state and has to carry cash to bank and hence need Arms Licence. He is one of the few levels of officers checking the colleges. In every Engineering Colleges checking will done and no weapon is required for protection. There appears to be no logic in his argument. Hence the Commissioner of Police, Hyderabad has not recommended for the grant of Arms Licence to the applicant.

3. Government after careful examination hereby reject the request of Sri Mohd Nasir Hussain Madani, for grant of Arms Licence to him, as there no threat perception to the applicant to possess Arms Licence to the applicant.
